CAUSE

On November 30, 2011, Derick Hughes left this officer a voice mail indicating he could not keep his counseling appointment scheduled for this same date with his therapist at Pioneer Human Services (PHS) in Spokane, Washington. It should be noted that the offender also missed a counseling session at PHS on December 18, 2011.

This officer met with the offender's therapist at PHS on December 6, 2011. Derick Hughes was subsequently contacted by telephone by his therapist and this officer. Mr. Hughes revealed that on December 4, 2011, he pushed his mother, after she had pushed him. He also indicated that he hit, and subsequently broke a mirror, at his mother's apartment as he left the premises. He indicated that he had been living with his maternal grandmother in Cusick, Washington, due to being charged with fourth degree assault and third degree malicious mischief. He also advised that a no-contact order had been filed in Pend Oreille County District Court on December 5, 2011. This order prohibits Derick Hughes from having contact with his mother, Ginger Hughes, until December 5, 2012. This officer directed the offender to report to PHS on December 7, 2011, to meet with this officer and his therapist.

Mr. Hughes reported to PHS on December 7, 2011, as directed. Mr. Hughes provided proof of his pending domestic violence case in Pend Oreille County District Court (case #CR6199 and CR8052). His arraignment in this matter is scheduled for December 14, 2011. Mr. Hughes' paternal grandmother transported him to Spokane. She confirmed he has no place to live and is indigent. The offender requested to be placed at the residential reentry center (RRC) in Spokane, Washington. This officer made arrangements with the Union Gospel Mission (UGM) in Spokane to house the offender in the interim. Prior to the offender being transported to UGM by his maternal grandmother, he submitted to a random urinalysis test at PHS. The sample tested presumptive positive for marijuana (THC). Mr. Hughes was questioned about this test result. He denied using THC, but did reveal he found a roach clip at his mother's apartment.

On December 8, 2011, a Pend Oreille County Sheriff's report had been requested in reference to the domestic violence charges pending against Derick Hughes. The report has not yet been received.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
